Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136 (a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 3, 5, 6/1-3, 6/5, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Dragan (U.S. Patent No. 4,569,662).

Dragan discloses a syringe for delivering dental material comprising a syringe tube 160 which has an outlet nozzle, a material container disposed in the syringe tube, a handle 170 disposed at the end of the syringe tube opposite the nozzle and a syringe piston which can be moved through the handle. The handle and the syringe tube are connected by mating threads 171. The material container includes a plug which is contacted by the syringe piston (see figure 17).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Discko, Jr. (U.S. Patent No. 5,324,273) in view of Muller et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,875,928).

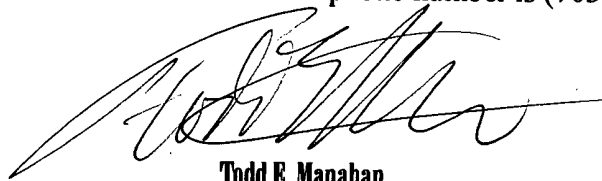

Discko, Jr discloses a syringe for delivering flowable dental materials comprising a syringe 10 having an outlet nozzle 12 constructed in one piece therewith, a handle 20 threadedly connected to the syringe tube opposite the nozzle, and a syringe piston which can be moved through the handle. Discko, Jr. discloses the invention essentially as claimed except for the material container disposed in the syringe barrel. Muller et al disclose that it is known in the art to provide a dental syringe with a material container 11a to facilitate loading thereof. The material container comprises an open ended sleeve 22 and a plug 24 which is engaged by the syringe piston to discharge material from the container. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the syringe of Discko, Jr. with a material container disposed within the syringe barrel in view of Muller et al in order to facilitate loading of the syringe.
